The musical score is written for a single melodic line in 4/4 time. It consists of four staves of music. The first staff contains measures 1 through 4, each with the lyrics 'makes A-mer-i-ca great'. The second staff contains measures 5 through 7, with lyrics 'makes A-mer-i - ca great', 'make A-mer - i - ca great!', and 'make A-mer - i - ca great!'. The third staff contains measures 8 through 11, each with the lyrics 'Hate ain't great'. The fourth staff contains measures 12 through 14, each with the lyrics 'hate ain't great'. The score includes first and second endings for measures 7 and 14. Measure 7 has a first ending that leads back to the beginning of the phrase and a second ending that leads to the next phrase. Measure 14 has a first ending that leads back to the beginning of the phrase and a second ending that concludes the piece with a double bar line.
